

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984
PROVISION OF PUFFIN CROSSING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Nottinghamshire County Council in exercise of its powers under Section 23 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, proposes to install a “Puffin” pedestrian crossing on Watnall Road in Nuthall, Broxtowe Borough, adjacent to the main pedestrian entrance to Basil Russell Park.

The crossing will incorporate a controlled area indicated by zig-zag markings along the carriageway where parking and loading will be prohibited. The extents of the controlled area will be:

Watnall Road

From a point approximately 47 metres north of Back Lane and 38 metres south of New Farm Lane zig zags will be marked for approximately 45 metres.

The Puffin crossing will provide a safe, signal controlled crossing facility across Watnall Road for pedestrians.

Any comments (quoting ref: TP2050639) in respect of this proposal must be received in writing by Friday 19th February 2021 to the address stated below.
